Buying broodmares is like spread betting. Pick right and your winnings just accumulate. Choose wrong and the agony can only accelerate. Getting in is a whole lot easier than getting out. The eternal attraction for breeders, professional and armchair alike, is that every broodmare sale has its gems. Progeny of a new sire, who arrives out of the blue to make the grade. Close family members, whose names go up in lights. If only we had Paul the Octopus to help us out!

The KZN Mare sale numbers 139 broodmares and fillies for stud, locally bred and imported, many themselves with black type. Just what the doctor ordered for the large contingent of new stallions making their way to the covering barns in 2010. KAREL 'Calamari' MIEDEMA takes a look at what's on offer.
