PREVIEW: The Arabian showpiece has attracted a strong international field. Saudi Arabian trainer Mutlaq Bin Mushreef won the 2018 renewal with Tallaab Al Khalediah and returns with two leading players, Mubasher Al Khalediah and Mutawakel Al Khalediah, winner and runner up respectively in the Obaiya Arabian Classic last month. It's hard to split the pair, with preference for Mubasher Al Khalediah to confirm the form with his stable companion. Al Maktoum Challenge (Round 2) winner and track record holder, RB Frynchh Dude trained by the UAE's Helal Alalawi will appreciate being back at Meydan, a track he has yet to taste defeat. Ridden by Pat Cosgrave, he ran fourth behind Mubasher Al Khalediah in Riyadh, beaten five lengths. He makes plenty of appeal of the home team, especially drawn near the rails. Braaq has made massive strides since switching to dirt at Meydan, winning twice this year, both at Group 1 level. The eight-year-old clearly warrants respect in the form of his life. The Didier Guillemin trained Deryan, winner of the 2020 The President of the UAE Cup (Group 1) at Deauville, completes the shortlist. Flying the flag for France, he needs to take a big step forward to reverse form.

TIPS: 8 MIDNIGHT SANDS 4 CHIEFDOM 14 TUZ 7 GOLDEN GOAL

PREVIEW: Doug Watson has a good record in the race, enjoying recent victories with One Man Band (2016) and Second Summer (2017). Course specialist Midnight Sands, winner of six of his seven races at Meydan, is fancied to give the American Dubai-based trainer his third victory in the hands of Pat Dobbs. Back after an unsuccessful spell in the USA, Midnight Sands impressed in the Burj Nahaar, the race that has historically been a good guide. Six former Godolphin Mile winners have used the Group 3 as a lead-up race. UAE champion trainer Satish Seemar has a strong team, saddling Roman Rosso, South American three-time Grade 1 winner, Rodaini, Tuz and Secret Ambition, the mount of local champion Tadhg O'Shea. Of the quartet, Tuz makes most appeal. He ran well behind Midnight Sands, keeping on for pressure to finish just over two lengths behind the selection. He has only made five lifetime appearances, and has more to offer. In a race the home challenge is numerically strong Chieftom can't be overlooked on the back of a solid effort in the Burj Nahaar, his best run of the campaign. His trainer, Salem bin Ghadayer has enjoyed success in the race, winning the 2018 renewal with Heavy Metal.

PREVIEW: Godolphin are strongly represented in a race they've historically dominated, winning six of the 11 renewals since the race was introduced in 2009. Secret Advisor, trained by Charlie Appleby, should be a big player. Unbeaten in two starts at Meydan, he comes here on the back of a pleasing comeback in the Red Sea Turf Handicap on the Saudi Cup undercard. The Saeed bin Suroor-trained pair Global Heat (Frankie Dettori) and Volcanic Sky have progressed nicely this winter and demand obvious respect. Suroor has booked Christophe Soumillon to ride Volcanic Sky. The six-year-old narrowly prevailed in close finish when getting the better of Global Heat in the trial, the Nad Al Sheba Trophy (Group 2) last month. It's hard to split the pair, with slight preference for Volcanic Sky to uphold the form, as he may improve going up in distance. Mark Johnston's Prix Royal Oak (Group 1) winner Subjectivist is a smart stayer and spearheads the British challenge, joined by Andrew Balding's useful five-year-old Spanish Mission, Red Verdon and the quirky Mekong, representing by Jamie Osborne. Subjectivist showed a likeable attitude in France, finding plenty for pressure in very testing conditions.

PREVIEW: Space Blues, regarded by many as the banker on the card, is the class act of the race and will take plenty of beating for Charlie Appleby, a trainer who saddled three winners on the 2019 Dubai World Cup card. He hasn't tasted defeat since disappointing at Meydan in March last year, reeling off five consecutive wins, including the Prix Maurice de Gheest (Group 1) in France. Typical of many of Dubawi's progeny, he's getting better and better with age and began the year with a bang, winning the stc 1351 Turf Sprint on the Saudi Cup undercard. Equilateral, trained by Charlie Hills, can boast a tremendous record at Meydan, winning three times and finishing second in just four starts, all over 1000m. A strong traveller, he could be vulnerable stepping up to 1200m under Frankie Dettori. However, if he sees out the trip, he can go well. Equilateral's stable companion Khaadem, not seen since finishing behind the placed horses in the July Cup, has to defy a 259 day absence. He has his quirks and can be opposed. American turf sprinters have a poor record (0-27) in the race and Extravagant Kid, the oldest horse in the field, and True Valor both make little appeal.

PREVIEW: This year's renewal looks wide-open, attracting a competitive field of 14. Pink Kamehameha, representing Japan, is chasing another big prize in the Middle East, five weeks after landing the Saudi Derby on his dirt debut. Always handy, he found plenty for pressure and will be fancied to confirm the form with New Treasure (third), Rebel's Romance (fourth) and the fifth (Soft Whisper). Pink Kamehameha has the worst of the draw, jumping from stall 14 and doesn't appeal stepping up in distance. France Go De Ina has better prospects of taking the prize back to Japan since Lani landed the 2016 renewal. Winner of two of his three races on dirt, he has the assistance of top US rider Joel Rosario and is a strong stayer. The lightly-raced Mnasek, impressive winner of the UAE Oaks, has badly missed the break in two of her three races and will need to avoid those antics facing her biggest task to date. Fillies have a poor record in the race, Khawlah's victory in 2011 the sole highlight. Panadol, arguably the main hope of the home team, impressed when making all in the Al Bastakiya, overcoming a wide gate and following up his impressive performance on his racecourse debut.

PREVIEW: Matera Sky, one of four sprinters flying the flag for Japan, arrives in Dubai on the back of another heart-breaking defeat in the Riyadh Dirt Sprint, in Saudi Arabia, just failing to hold Copano King's late burst. Second to X Y Jet in the 2019 Golden Shaheen, Matera Sky has demonstrated he's highly effective under these conditions, and should go well from an inside gate. Copano King is very consistent and showed a likeable attitude to nail Matera Sky close home. He holds sound claims, as the expected strong pace should play to his strengths. US sprinters always command respect, understandable given their excellent record in the race. Yaupon, trained by Steve Asmussen, was very progressive last year, winning his first four races. He had excuses for his below-par effort in the Breeders' Cup Sprint. The son of Uncle Mo likes to dominate and is ideally berthed to force the pace. Wildman Jack, winner of the Palos Verdes (Grade 3), a key US prep for the Golden Shaheen, is one to consider under Fernando Jara. The progressive Canvassed is unbeaten over the course and distance, winning a handicap before landing the Mahab Al Shimaal (Group 3) on Super Saturday. Trained by Doug Watson.

PREVIEW: Lord North, trained by John Gosden, has the services of Frankie Dettori, a rider operating at impressive 24% strike-rate at Meydan this year. By Dubawi, he put up a smart performance when winning the Prince of Wales's (Group 1) at Royal Ascot, quickening impressively to score easily under a confident James Doyle ride. He warrants plenty of respect and looks the one to beat here. The veteran Lord Glitters, third behind Almond Eye in the 2019 renewal, has been in fine form at Meydan this year, winning two of his three races including the Jebel Hatta (Group 1). Trained by David O'Meara, he needs a strong gallop and a trouble-free passage, as he likes to be ridden from off the pace. In a big field of 13, Lord Glitters doesn't appeal at short odds. Al Suhail, trained by Charlie Appleby, made an encouraging comeback in the Jebel Hatta, finishing a close third, following a 240 day absence. He was difficult to settle, his early exertions proving costly and in the circumstances it was a pleasing effort. He will appreciate a strong tempo and has sound claims of giving his trainer a first win in the race. Vin de Garde, the mount of Mickael Barzalona, represents Japan.

PREVIEW: This promises to be best race on the card, featuring the exciting clash of four Group/Grade 1 winners from four countries. Mishriff, winner of the Saudi Cup, switches to turf after his fantastic win in Riyadh, where he produced a top-class performance when staying on powerfully in the closing stages to beat US dirt star Charlatan and 12 others. On that evidence he won't be troubled stepping up to 2400m and provided he has fully recovered from a tough race five weeks ago, he can put up a bold show. Mogul, Coolmore's only runner on the night, ended his three-year-old campaign on a high with victory in the Hong Kong Vase in December, beating local champion Exultant by three lengths. He will be suited by the conditions and is entitled to plenty for respect. Japan's hopes rest with and smart racemares Loves Only You and Chrono Genesis, winner of the Arima Kinen (Grade 1) on her latest appearance in December. She's a classy filly and has sound claims of taking her tally at the highest level to three. Oisin Murphy has been booked to ride Loves Only You, who was six lengths behind Chrono Genesis in the Arima Kinen. She confirmed her well-being, winning a Grade 2 last month.

PREVIEW: This year's renewal, the 25th running, looks the most competitive in history lacking a standout performer. US horses have won the race 11 times and Mystic Guide, installed favourite after winning the Razorback Handicap (Grade 3), bids to give Godolphin a ninth Dubai World Cup. Trained by Michael Stidham, he was a lightly raced last year, being restricted to just four appearances and he rewarded his connections' patience when impressing at Oaklawn Park on his four-year-old debut. Drawn nicely in stall six, a plus in a big field of 14, he makes plenty of appeal. Sleepy Eyes Todd, a first runner in Dubai for American trainer Miguel Silva, ran better than his finishing position suggested in the Saudi Cup. He met interference at the top of the home straight but kept on in determined fashion to finish less than 13 lengths behind Mishriff. He has each-way claims at double-digit odds. Jesus Team only found the classy Knicks Go too strong in the Pegasus World Cup. Connections elected to swerve the Saudi Cup and keep him fresh for a trip to Dubai, and he has to be high on any shortlist. The Al Maktoum Challenge (Round 3), over the same course and distance.

HOW TO READ FIELDS: Runner info shown as follows: Number; Horse; Age; colour; sex; Career record: wins-places-runs; Trainer; Draw (position in starting gate); Jockey; Weight to be carried included rider < equipment; Last 3 runs with most recent on right. After horse name: * =Blinkers; ! =Pacifiers; () =Blinkers/Pacifiers; $ =Cheek Pieces; x =Eye Shield; † =Visor; ? =Hood; < =Ear Muffs; Before the jockey name: * =apprentice. Last three runs are shown in order of finishing position; racecourse; distance; lengths beaten. Thus 3V12 is third at Vaal over 1200m lengths behind the winner. If underscored 1T12, the race followed a rest of 60 days or more.
